The following were from Georgetown: Mr. Edward Humphaus and Miss Viola Perri, Mr. William Pugh and Miss Agatha Perri.

GEORGE WASHINGTON EUCHE.

Mrs. George Salendar entertained on the "22nd" with a delightful euchre party. The decorations were all on the George and little hatchett order of things. The table had for its centerpiece a large star, made entirely of red carnations. At each guest place was a small cannon with tiny shot made of red candy. The ice cream brick had moulded on one end the number "22" and in the other was stuck a small red hatchett. Cakes bore little clusters of red cherries on each. Red candles hooded in the same were placed at the five points of the star. In the parlors the tapers were white and the flowers white carnations.

The prizes were won by Mrs. W. C. Newman, Mrs. Ben Marshall and Mrs. Clem Beninger.

MRS. CLAY'S DINNER.

Mrs. Rogers Clay entertained at dinner last week for the wives of the Judges of the Court of Appeals. The dining room was a very beautiful one and the decorations of white and green artistically carried out.

The tables had for a centerpiece a low silver basket filled with fruit. The silver candelabra held white tapers hooded in green. The Judges of the Appellate Court were absent from home at the Louisville banquet and Mrs. Clay tendered the temporary widows with this happy compliment. Those present were: Mrs. T. J. Nunn, Mrs. Henry S. Barker, Mrs. W. E. Settle and Mrs. J. P. Hobson. Several of the judges and their better halves being out of the city, their places were filled by Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham, Mrs. S. J. Shackelford and her guest, Miss Shelby Darnell, of Lexington.

FOR LOUISVILLE VISITORS.

Misses Maria Trabue and Bryan of Louisville were delightfully entertained on Saturday last by "Bishop" Churchill and Mrs. Jennie Caldwell, at the home of the latter on West Main street.

The "Bishop's" culinary accomplishments makes him the envy of both sexes and on this occasion he was at his best.

The table had a cherry tree loaded with the toothsome fruit in the center of the table and at its base a tell-tale hatchett.

One of the most important dishes was an enormous "cherry pie" such as "Billy-boy" must have been satisfied with, and when the silk flag was unfurled from over this monster of a pie the applause was entirely satisfactory to the tickled ears of Mr. Churchill.

Besides the genial and popular host, Mrs. Jennie Caldwell, Capt. Thotdore Wylie, Miss Joe Murphy, Mr. Richard McClure and Misses Trabue and Bryan, of Louisville, were present.
